

MEET YOUTH MINISTER MARCUS PRICE II

Hello, church family! My name is Marcus Price II. I am so looking forward to being the full-time youth minister here at Georgetown First. I recently graduated from Georgetown College, where I studied Christian Theology and Philosophy. I have future plans of continuing my education at Asbury Theological Seminary in pursuit to become an ordained minister.

My wife, Haley Faye, also graduated from Georgetown College and is currently studying at the University of Kentucky to become a family counselor. She is such a blessing in my life and is in total support of the ministries that I am involved in.

I am originally from Cincinnati. However, I have very quickly fallen in love with the wonderful Commonwealth of Kentucky, specifically with my home here in Georgetown. I have been a part of The United Methodist Church my entire life, and while still in high school, I became a leader in my local church's youth program. I have served through the Chrysalis Program in Southwest Ohio, which is where I found the true joy of working with teens in a setting that revolves around the Gospel. Although I plan on becoming a lead pastor someday, I am excited for both the challenges and blessings that come with full-time youth ministry. After serving in our congregation for the past year and a half as a part-time youth minister, I am convinced that there will be amazing moments ahead for us.

My core belief is in sharing the love of God through meaningful relationships. Having a real connection with someone makes ministry as easy as making a friend and bringing that friend to Christ. My vision for youth that interacts with our program is for them to feel God's abundant love each and every time they step into this church and that Christ's love carries over into their everyday lives.

Haley and I look forward to growing close to all of you and returning the kindness that we have already experienced in such a short span of time. We pride ourselves in being approachable, so feel welcome to introduce yourselves to us. We both would love to make your acquaintance! It is an honor to serve alongside you all, and I cannot wait to spend many, many years as a part of this church that we call home.

Email: marcus@georgetownfirst.com